Sharon McDonald

Sharon, for thanks, for being my right arm in chem. (also, my left arm, both legs and right foot).
I am so lazy in that class, but at least I think I'll pass with a high C- (or low B+?). Let's go to the lake or something this summer.
You can bring Randy, and Randy can bring a date for me, ok?
Good luck at college since I'm just a junior. Oh well. Be good!
I'll call me! (599-0579)
See you at you
SHOW OFF!
+00

Love you,
Lisa

Dearest Sharon,
It's been great fun
these past years. Thanks for helping me when I got lazy. I will see you at TCU. Be good and successful.

Love,
Scott

"Charon"

I'm really glad that will become closer this year in Triz (Cap's class) and I'm sure glad that we did.
I think you a great person and a good friend, I hope we can always stay close Good luck to you
in the future with school,
Randy and everything you do. Stay in touch!

Love,

Scott

Sharon,

I'm really glad we've become good friends. You're a terrific person, one that I really enjoy talking to. I hope that you receive all that life has to offer & I wish you the best in the future! Take care, stay sweet, & most of all, stay in touch! Jimmy

Sharon,

I have always admired your intelligence & good looks. You will go along way in life. I have always thought of you as one of my best friends. I wish you & Randy all the luck in the world. I & you even need anything don't hesitate to call me, 441-7669.

Keep in touch

Love always

Mike G.

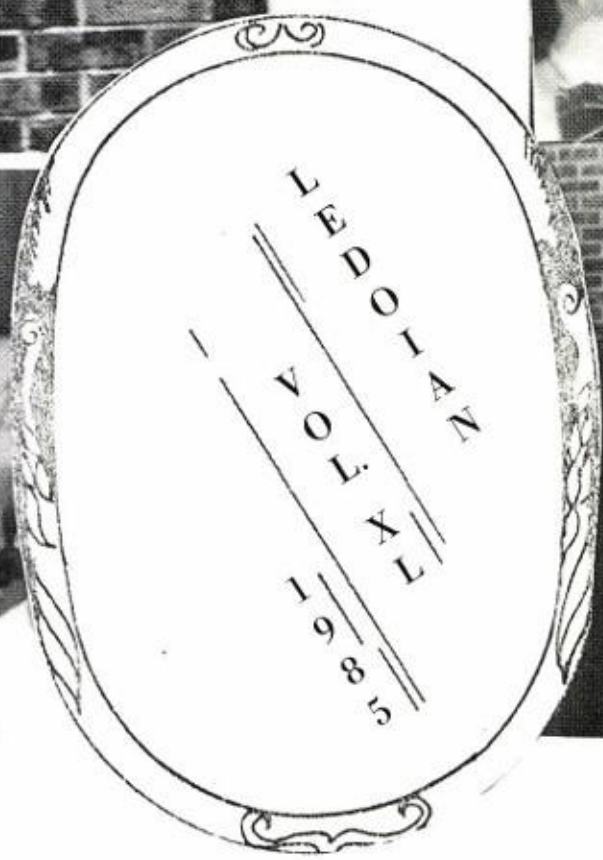

Shaun - (sisay)

These past 4 yrs. have gone by so fast! I'm glad I get to see you grow up & get exactly what you deserve. (Pammy)
I can't believe you're finally an adult & graduating. I still kinda wish we were little kids playin

Dr. Horton! I love you so much & wish the very best for you!
if you want it bad enough -

GO GET IT!!! Don't let anything or anyone stop or get into your way!

I love you!
Jodi

I wish you two the best of luck.
Stay just the way you are and expect the best - it's yours to take. Speaking of take, take care of yourself.
Don't stay out of trouble.
I miss you,
all your dreams come true -
Keep in touch. My love,
Ednie & Sweet
Hard "you's not

We'll never be this young again.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

Student activities at AHS are many and varied so if a student wants to be involved it is an easy thing to do. One thing a student might do is join the band which is a group who greatly contributes to the spirit and quality of our school. Or perhaps, a student might join choir which is a top quality ensemble that strives for excellence in everything they do. If neither of these groups interest a student, then she could try out for drill team or cheerleader.

If a student feels that these activities are too time consuming, he might join one of the clubs such as FBPA which is related to the business world, the FHA which is concerned with homemaking activities, the FFA which deals with agriculture related activities, or the Literary Club for the literary minded student.

If a student is a junior, then he had better be prepared to become involved since the juniors work very hard in the concession stands to raise money for the Junior-Senior Prom.

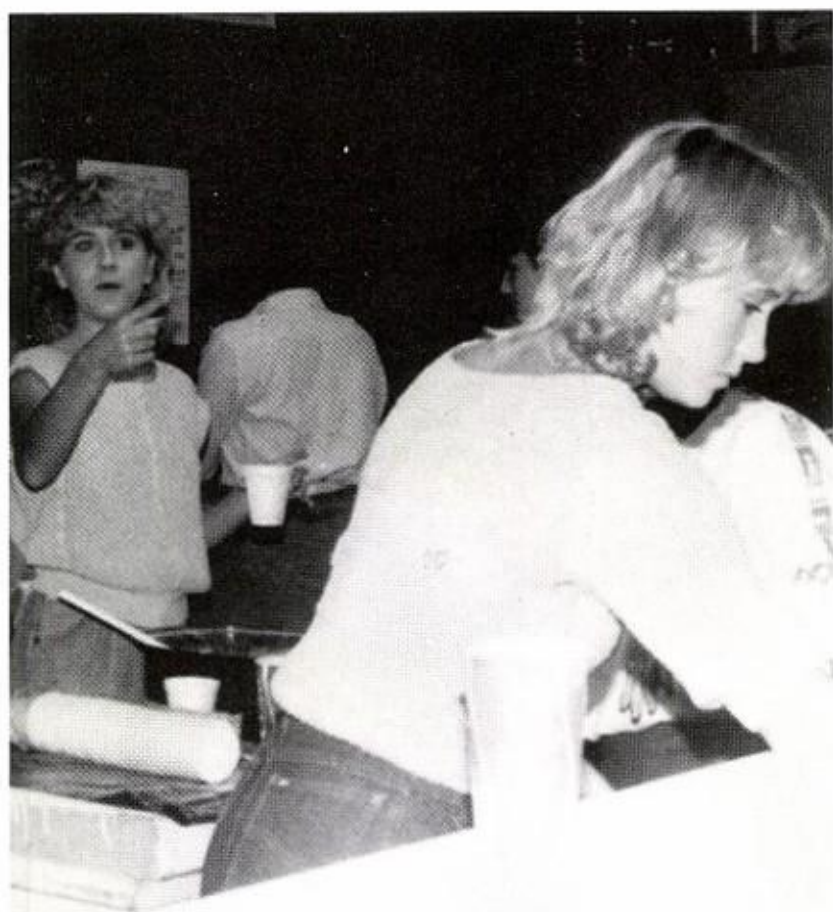

If a student wishes to get involved on a short term basis, he might volunteer to be in a skit at pep rally. As one can see there are many different ways to become involved at AHS.

Competition

Lower Right: Is it as Incredible as the Hulk? Toby Watts lifts weights as Jimmy Don Brown spots.

Lower Left: 1-2-3-4 Smile! Drill team members prepare to enter the field for competition.

Spirit Overflows at Aledo

Spirit at Aledo. It seemed almost too good to be true, but with a winning football team and energy unleashed, the school spirit came to life. There were signs and screams, and finally the pep rallies were not meetings of silence anymore. Although the pep rallies were held bright and early at eight o'clock every Friday morning, everyone attended and the excitement was incredible. 'Born to Win' was our motto, and who could ever forget Curtis Hissam and the football team's inspiring rendition of the Bearcat Chant? The varsity had an eight and two season, and the first eight games brought impressive wins. The senior boys even got involved at pep rallies by spelling Aledo and Bearcats out on the gym floor with their bodies. A Bearcat Trail sign was raised at the entrance to the high school to mark 'our territory'. Even the parents and friends got involved in the festivities. The Ballingers took an active role in pep rallies. They supplied us with the winning football from Cedar Hill and a Victory flag to raise on the flagpole. Mrs. Andrews' advanced art class stayed busy by painting everything with the Bearcat insignia or colors. They painted 'Bearcat Pride' on all the trash cans, 'Home of the Bearcats' on the press box at the field, and a bearcat outside the team's locker room at the football field. Mrs. Dudek and the cheerleaders brought the spirit back to Aledo with locker signs, spirit poems, and an all out effort to restore the spirit we once had. That spirit was somehow recaptured this year and helped bring the fun back into football season.

1. Body Builders! S. Weekly, S. Everett, J. Henderson, C. Gilliland, and T. Exman spell out A-L-E-D-O.
2. The name says it all! A new sign marks the entrance to A.H.S.
3. Flying High! The flags at Aledo High wave victoriously in the wind.
4. Victory Forever! Mrs. Ballinger presents a victory flag to the student body.
5. Showing our Spirit! A poem by Kenny Vanover decorates the entrance hall.
6. Busy at work! The advanced art class posts a sign on the press box at the football field.
7. Grrrow! Matt Elrod and Greg Minter paint a bearcat on the field house.

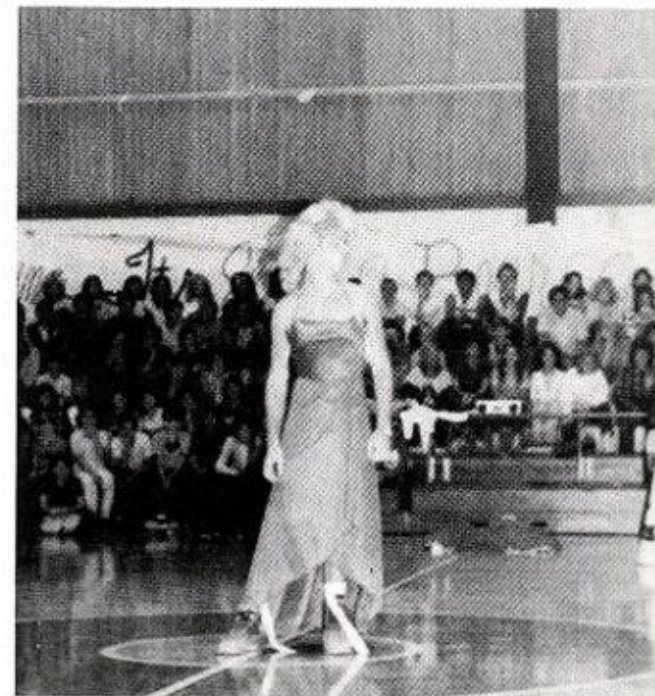

Homecoming

1. Seniors are the Best! Seniors enjoy the hallway during Homecoming week.
2. A perfect 10! Scott Weekly dresses up as a girl for a skit.
3. A normal every day locker! Mike Elrod proudly shows off his decorated locker.
4. The Mighty Fighting Bearcats! Varsity football team runs through the victory line.

'84 was one of the highlights of the year. Homecoming was a week long event with many fun-filled activities. Special dress-up days were declared including Western Day, Crazy Socks Day, and School Colors Day. On Wednesday there was a Bon-fire which drew a large crowd. Then, after school on Thursday many of the girls decorated the football players' lockers and the hallways.

Finally, the big day arrived. It began with an 8:00 o'clock pep rally. The gym was packed with Bearcat fans. The cheerleaders had many special preparations including many cheers, the introduction of the homecoming queen nominees plus "the last minute entries from each class," and the presentation of the victory flag.

After the pep rally the student body was so filled with spirit that some of them even sprayed their hair orange!

Then the climax of the day — the football game with Ferris. The Bearcats ended the day in fine fashion by defeating Ferris 13-12.

1. The big moment! '83 queen, Jill Castleberry, congratulates '84 queen, Ellen Palmer.

2. An enjoyable evening! Princess Michelle Ingram smiles for the camera.

3. Bulletin board of Aledo! The bon-fire was announced in the usual way — by painting the railroad building.

Toga party? Bill Waldrup and Todd Duncan dress up in togas at a dance.

¡Escucha me! David Moore receives assistance from Mrs. Seaman while the rest of the class seems to be assisting each other.

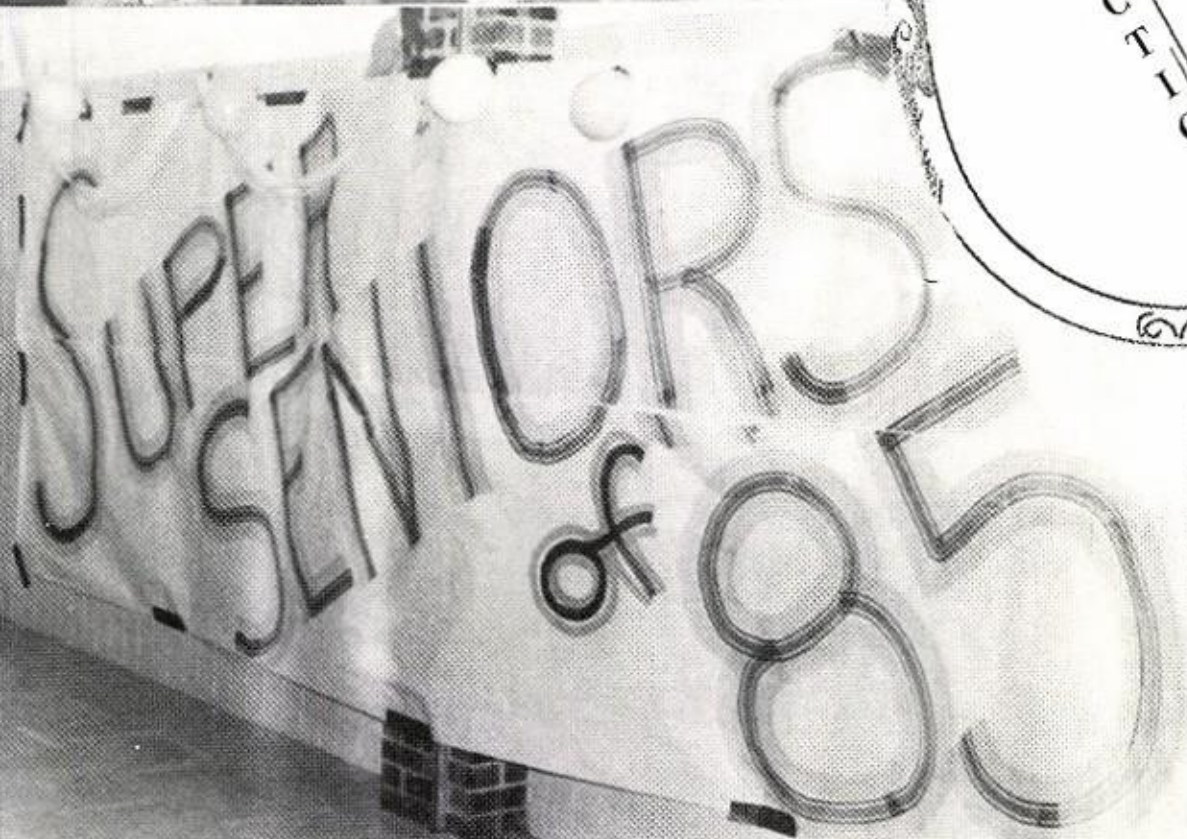

Genius at work! Kim Flack, library aide, checks in a returned book.

Be a Part of Your School

If you are the type person who doesn't choose to be in band, choir, drill team or a club, you can still be a part of the activities at school. You might devote your energy toward academics taking advanced courses such as Spanish II, Chemistry or Computer Literacy. By your hard work you could become a member of the National Honor Society.

Some students might choose to be a part of the teachers' aide program. These students devote their study-hall time to helping the faculty with many of their clerical duties. Or a student might choose to participate in a sport such as football, basketball, volleyball, track or baseball. Other students simply choose to take part in the social activities. No matter what you do become a part of your school in some way.

Quad-Paks, Techni Croppers, Grease Pencils

These names may not mean anything to the layman but they are everyday tools for the members of the yearbook staff. The staff began preparing for the '85 yearbook in June of '84 by attending a three day workshop at Tarleton State University. The staff members were awarded honorable mention for their layout designs at the workshop.

When school began in August the staff immediately began planning the yearbook and raising money to meet the enormous cost of publishing the 'Ledoian. The staff sold advertising to area merchants, worked concession stands, and sold carnations for Valentine's Day to raise funds.

The 'Ledoian was sold on October 16, and the staff was thrilled because more yearbooks were sold than ever before.

The staff is a close knit group of friends who spend many hours of their time drawing layouts, writing body copy and taking photographs of the many school activities. In addition to the hard work, the staff has a lot of fun together occasionally going out to eat or at the annual Christmas party at Friday's.

The search for approval. Senior Denise Lee and Mrs. Rowe work out the details on the senior pages of the yearbook.

"Looks good to me." Terri Wylie looks through some old yearbooks to get some different ideas for the '85 Ledoian.

"Get together everyone!" The yearbook staff takes a quick break from cleaning the concession stand to pose for a picture.

Drum Major Deric Weiss

It may not look like much, but it's got a lot of talent hidden in it. It's the 1984-85 Marching Bearcat Band. The marching may look easy, but it took hours of practice to learn the show. The Band started their practicing two weeks before school started. They practiced music from 4 to 6 pm, then they marched from 7 to 9 pm. Along with the start of school came Monday night and morning practices. All of this work just to support the team and school.

Out of last year's group came many talented students. In December 1983, we had three of this year's students make All-Region Band. They were Penny Green, Jamie Deel, and Deric Weiss. In January 1984, we had six students make All-District Band. They were Deede Miller, Jamie Deel, Deric Weiss, Kent McAnally, Penny Green, and Jennifer Marsden. UIL Solos came in April 1984. Four people played and three made First Divisions which took them to State, held in Austin. These three were Laurie Walker, Jamie Deel, and Deric Weiss.

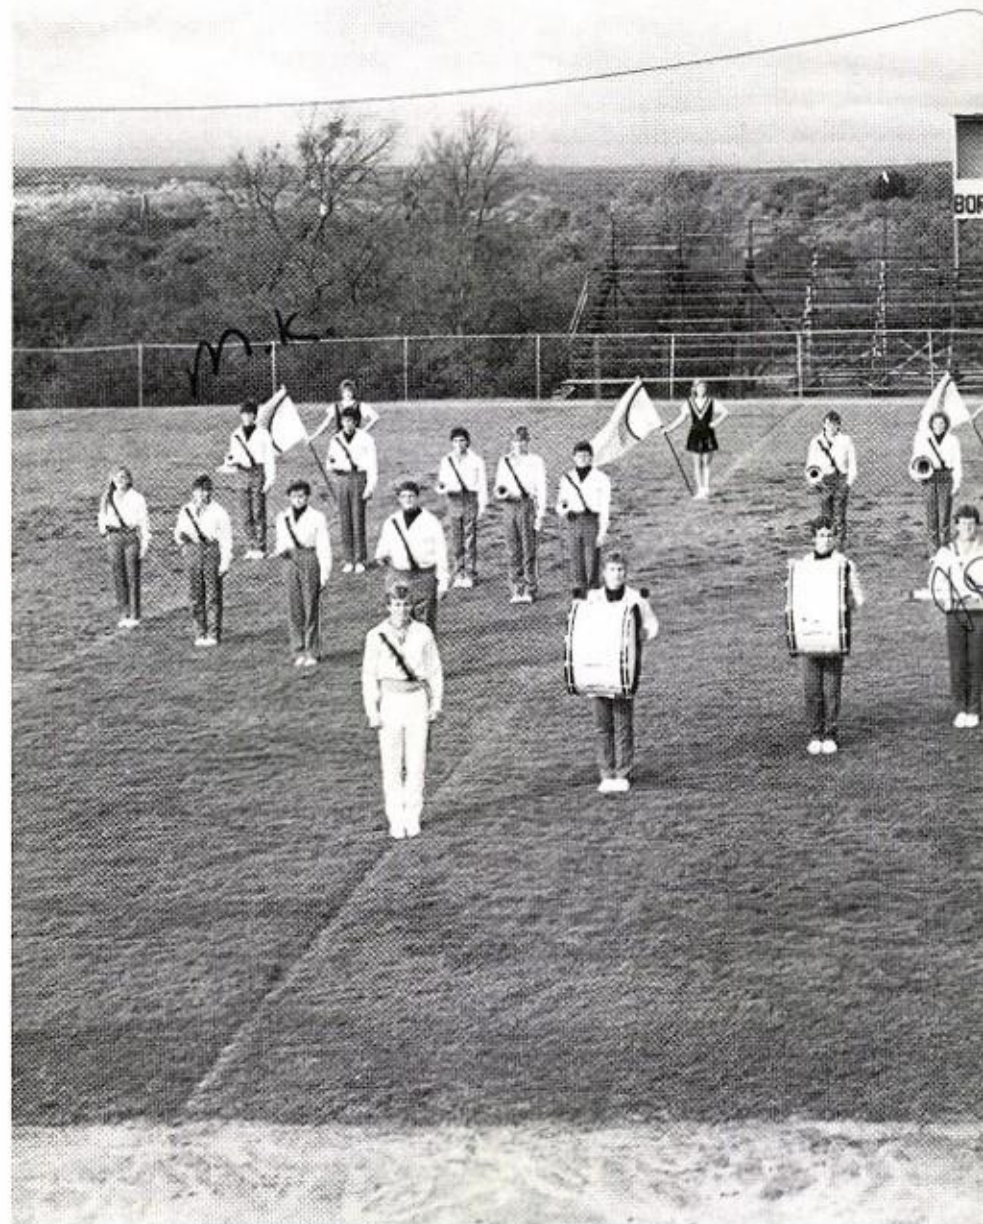

This year the Band went to UIL Marching Contest at the University of Texas at Arlington. Although the Band got a Third Division, Feature Twirler Kay Haney and Renee Pennington both got a First Division on their twirling solos. This first division will send them to State competition in June.

On You Bearcats! The band supports the Bearcats by playing the fight song!

Rehearse, Rehearse! Many hours of practice go into a performance by the band.

This year the Middle School Band was arranged a little differently. Each grade had band a different period. In the past the Sixth grade had one class and the Seventh and Eighth grade had another one. Although the Seventh and Eighth grade bands didn't practice together, you couldn't tell the difference when they played at the Middle School Pep Rallies.

The bands are planning on attending the UIL Contest in the Spring. They also plan on going to Sandy Lake in Dallas for a festival. Not only are they working toward these goals, they are also having fund raisers, along with the High School Band, to raise money for their trips and the High School Band's Spring trip.

So you can see band is not all fun and play. The members have to work very hard to do the things they do, especially Mr. Anderson! They really appreciated all the support they received from everyone this year, and hope to see even more in the future!

Did You See My Locker Sign?

If you were an athlete, in the marching band or on the drill team, you announced this to the school with locker signs (which included your title, position or instrument) made by the cheerleaders. Locker signs were one of the jobs six varsity and five junior varsity (one junior varsity member moved to Michigan in November) cheerleaders had in addition to coordinating pep rallies, making uncountable spirit signs and cheering at all the games.

Cheerleaders prepared for their jobs with a week at SMU's cheerleading camp in August. There, the varsity won two superior, three excellent and one good ribbon;

the junior varsity won one superior, three excellent and two good ribbons. Before school started, they practiced two weeks; during school, practice time averaged at least three hours per day.

The groups raised money for pep rallies, spirit signs and anything else needed to keep spirit up by selling ads for the high school football programs. They then sold the programs at the varsity games.

Mrs. Paula Dudek, sponsor, said the cheerleaders plan a cheerleading clinic for grades one through eight in February 1985.

Singing Auditions

For the first time, the choir members at AHS found themselves trying out! The numbers in choir had grown so large that the choir had to be divided. The "Select Choir" began in August when auditions for this group were held. The Select Choir is now the performing choir and performed at many events including UIL contest, the TCJC Choir Festival (the only 3A choir invited) and several Christmas programs.

The choir held the Second Annual Choir Follies which consist of individual and group performances in a variety of talent divisions plus choral group selections. Also, the choir produced a mini-musical for the first time this year.

The choir conducted a very successful selling campaign to help defer the expenses for some of their performances.

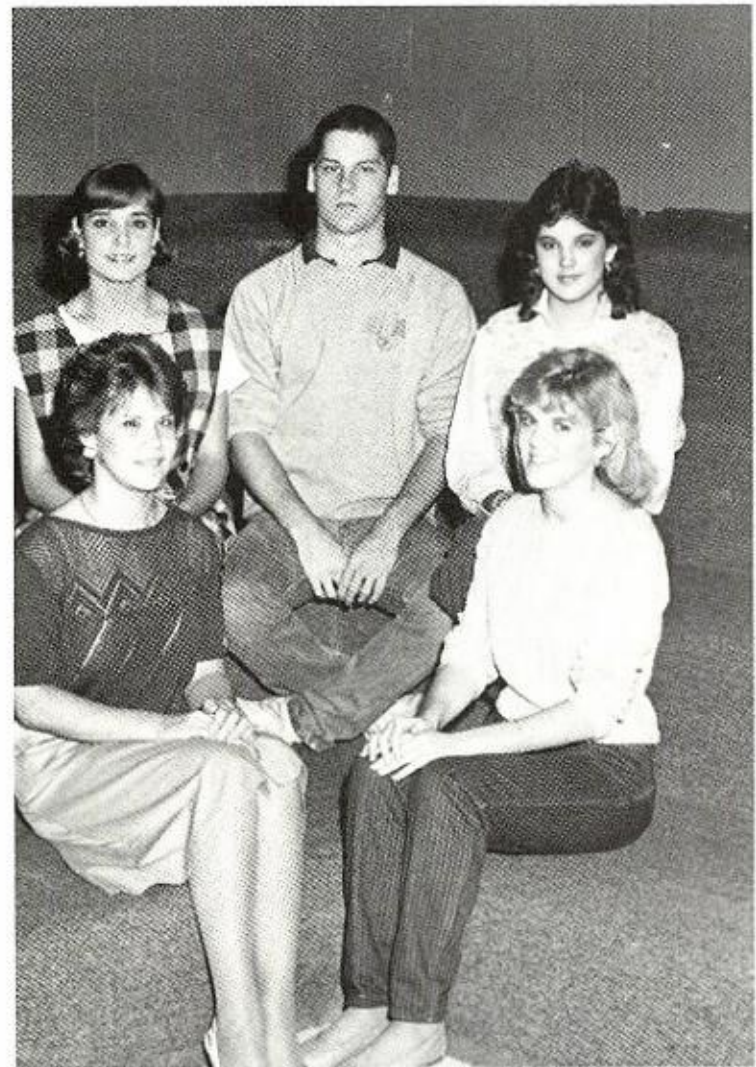

The choir has many talented members among them Crystal Shankel who received a one hundred dollar award to apply to the college of her choice and Jamie Deal who was selected to the All-District Choir. The senior members sang at the Senior pep rally and at Baccalaureate.

The choir members work very hard and spend several months preparing for each of their special performances.

Highsteppers '85

The 1984-85 Highsteppers had a very successful year. The drill team members attended camp at Southern Methodist University in June where they were taught many of the routines that they performed at pep rallies and football games. Then in August the girls began to practice two weeks before the start of school in order to be prepared for their first performance.

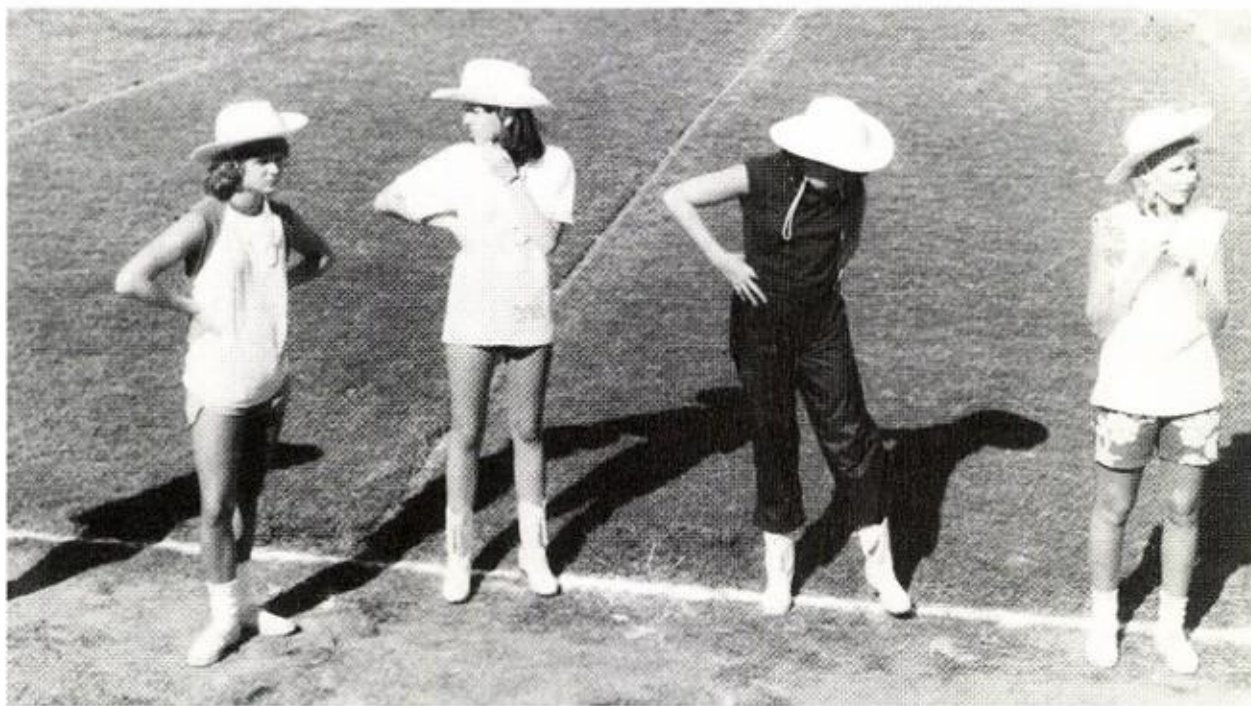

The Highsteppers is composed of sixteen very talented young ladies. They have received numerous blue ribbons at camps and clinics. Six of the girls — Galena Parenica, Laurie Christian, Patty Neal, Judith Sanchez, Tia Young, and Ellen Palmer — were selected from girls all over the state to perform at the Bluebonnet Bowl in Houston. Also, the entire group was invited to perform at Reunion Arena in December.

In addition to the many hours of hard work devoted to perfecting dance routines, the drill team members conducted money raising projects to help pay some of the many expenses involved with being in drill team. This year they held several raffles giving away dinner tickets and a Cabbage Patch doll from Germany.

The Aledo Chapter of Future Business Leaders of America is the fastest growing club on campus. This year there are fifty-nine members. FBLA holds monthly meetings and normally is involved in some type of project. In October the meeting was at the Old Spaghetti Warehouse for the installation of officers. Also, in October the FBLA members were involved in selling lace picture frames for one of their money-making projects. In November they sold Canisters 'n Corn. The money from the fund-raisers is used for chapter operating expenses and for the state leadership conference. Another activity was the creation of Free Enterprise appreciation notices which were included in all December statements from the Aledo State Bank. The service project for the year began in March which consisted of making buttons for pre-school children in case they are lost.

The Outstanding Project Report, written mainly by Michel Ingram, describing the chapter's fingerprinting project won first at district and state and fifth place (out of over 100 reports) at the national level. Members attended the area workshop in October and the state conference in March. The motto "Getting Involved" truly fits the organization.

I hear Congratulations are in order! Mrs. Ingram accepts a certificate from FBLA president Mike Holley.

Future Farmers of America

The local chapter of the Future Farmers of America has traditionally been a very strong and active organization at Aledo, and this year has been no exception. The officers traveled to New Mexico for a week long meeting to plan the activities for the year in June. In July, they attended the State FFA Convention in Lubbock where they won the National Superior Chapter Award.

Despite the new state laws, the FFA members participated in several livestock shows including the Parker County, the State Fair, the Fort Worth, Houston, and San Antonio shows.

The FFA members have also received many individual and team honors during the year. Tim Soules was elected District Treasurer. Three judging teams — Dairy Products, Poultry, and Dairy Cattle — went to state. At the District Leadership Contest five out of the seven attending placed.

Some other activities for the FFA included sponsoring a Hunter Safety course, hosting a district meeting, attending the National FFA Convention in Kansas City, and selling fruit, turkeys and sausage in December for their major moneymaking project. Phil Bradford and Jack DeShazo, FFA sponsors, have done an excellent job in directing all of the activities.

The FHA is one of the most active organizations on campus. The members have had a very busy and rewarding year. All the planning began in June when the officers attended a workshop where plans for the entire year were made implementing the year's theme, "Reach for the Stars."

The monthly meetings began in August with a progressive dinner with everyone dressing as a different star. In September the new members were invited to the informal initiation with the theme being outerspace. In October the formal initiation was held at Ridglea Country Club. The first meetings had been mostly fun, but in November the meeting took a more serious note as members of S.A.D.D. (Students Against Drunk Driving) conducted the meeting. Of course, December brought the annual Christmas party at Cindy LaVigne's home. One of the big events of each year is Daddy's Date Night. This took place at Mr. Catfish in February. March brought FHA week and the election of officers for the next year. The area meeting in Stephenville and the state meeting in Houston took place in April in addition to the Grandmothers' Tea and the Encounter Awards. The last monthly meeting in May was the traditional farewell to seniors.

The FHA is sponsored by Mrs. Linda Hailey and Mrs. Ann Reagan who are both very active in the local chapter and area and state activities. Mrs. Reagan retired at the end of this year and her hard work and devotion to FHA will be missed by everyone connected with the organization.

Let's see who really has the Sexiest legs! Seniors, Cindy LaVigne, Theresa Lohmann, Dahna Clark, and Gail Schmitzinsky along with Junior Kathy Jones tries to show who does have the sexiest legs.

Can't we sit down yet? FHA officers lead the installation ceremonies.

I told you to stay with me at all times! Senior Dahna Clark brings her mother to the FHA installation banquet.

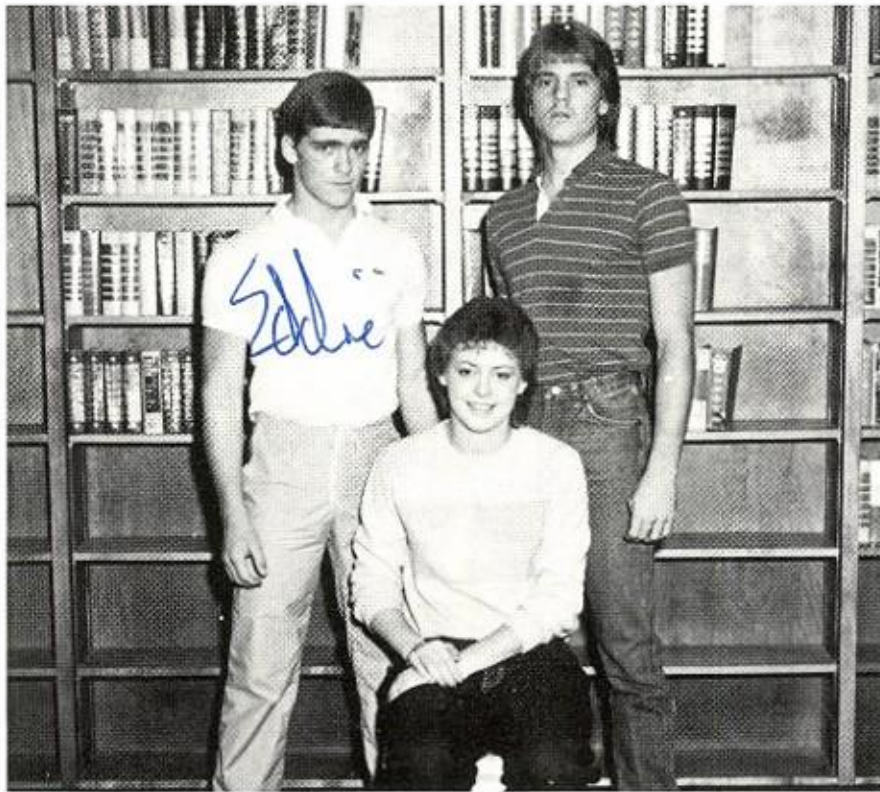

Total Confusion! FHA members are busy putting together their scrap book.

The Literary Club was under the direction of a new sponsor this year, Mrs. Brenda Bradley. The Literary Club met early in the school year to elect officers and make plans for a busy year. The purpose of the Literary Club is to explore cultural ideas such as reading and discussing literature, attending the theater and visiting museums. For one field trip, the members visited several museums in Fort Worth and ended the day by eating out. The club also had several meetings before school so the members could share reading experiences or personal writing. Poetry is a favorite literary form of many of the members so there is always an original poem available for reading. Phillip Stavens wrote a poem about the football team that became a favorite of everyone. The Literary Club provided many cultural opportunities for its members.

UIL

Aledo High School students participated in a UIL practice meet February 16, at Bridgeport High School. This meet was used to prepare contestants for District and State UIL meets. From the first practice meet the following awards were won:

Ready Writing — Amanda Carlson 1st
 Feature Writing — Paula Adkins 3rd
 Headline Writing — Randy Brown 3rd
 Science — Parnell McGlinchey 4th
 Dell Young 6th
 Curtis Hissam 8th
 David Moore 9th
 Spelling — — Traci Barclay 12th

"To be or not to be . . ." Jeanette Lee practices for poetry reading.

Number Sense — Amanda Carlson 13th

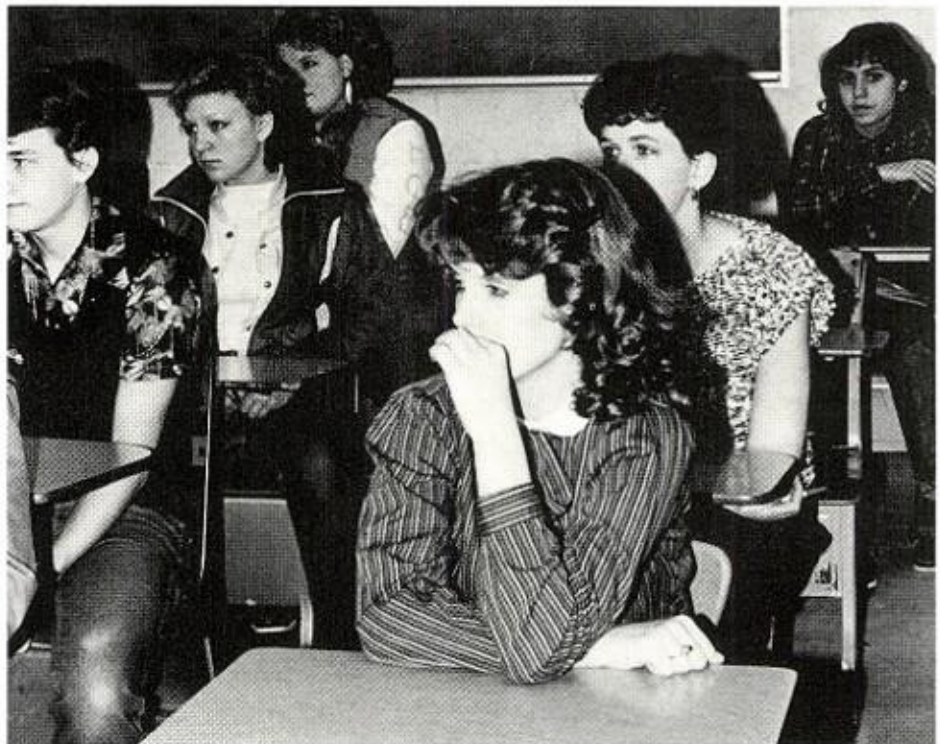

These and other contestants attended a practice meet for math and science at Springtown on March 2. They also planned to attend more meets before the District Meet in March and the State Meet in April.

Each activity was sponsored by a teacher who met with her participants at certain times before the contests. This time was spent on tutoring and critiquing their contestants. Two new categories were added for Literature and Accounting this year.

As an extra reward for the participants, a dinner was given after the District Meet in March.

Be sure to include a headline. Joey King, Paula Adkins, and Carla Smith prepare to participate in a Journalism contest.

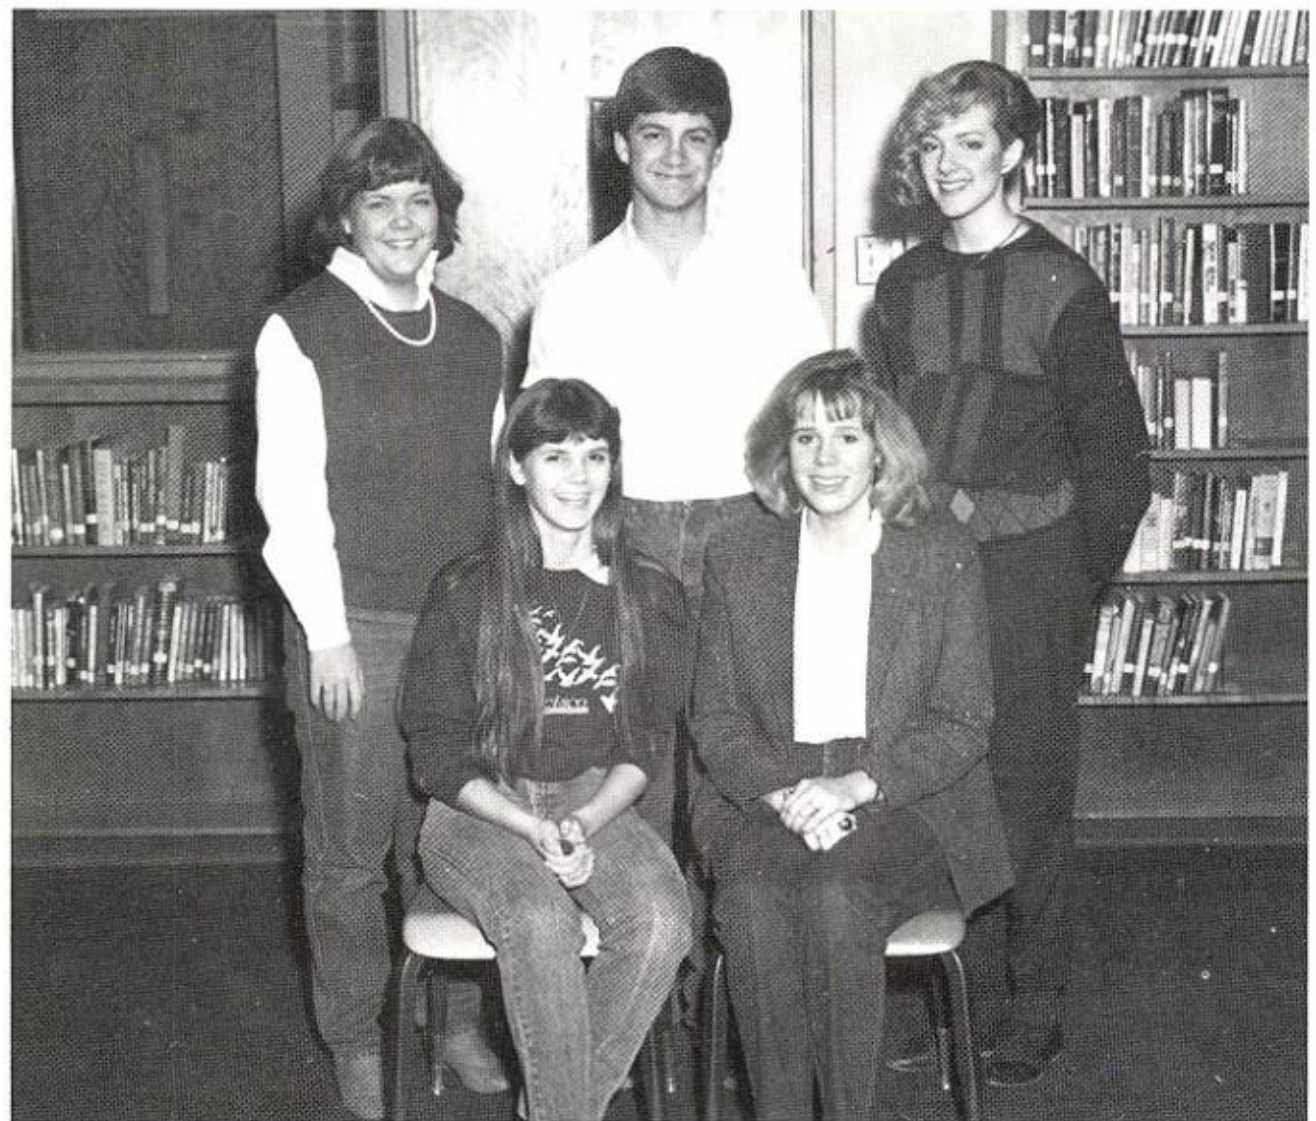

Exciting info! Participants listen carefully as they are told about the Bridgeport meet.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society is an organization for those who maintain high academic standards. Students are selected for membership by approval of administration and faculty in areas of citizenship, service, leadership, and character and must have a grade point average of 88 or above. In February the members went to the Omni Theater and to eat pizza at Mama's Pizza. With our new sponsor, Mrs. Hoffer and our officers, this year has been a success.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is an organization of students which represents the entire student body. One of the duties of the group is to raise money to be used to buy needed items for the school. The twelve member group is made up of three students from each grade who are elected by their class.

The year began somewhat shaky. Mr. Rooney stepped in as the new supervisor of the group and things began to shape-up. Meetings began in early November and were held every other Tuesday during fifth period. Officers were elected at the first meeting and then the group began work. The council bulletin which shows various group activities and notices was set up. The council also worked in the concession stand at many basketball games in order to raise money to buy a new trophy case for the school.

The council attended the state convention for student councils in Austin during April which proved very beneficial to its members.

The teachers aide program has been in existence for several years and has proven to be very effective both for the teachers and the students involved. However, with the educational reforms brought about by House Bill 76 the program is being curtailed and is in danger of being eliminated. In order to be a teacher's aide, the student must be approved by both the teacher with whom he or she will be working and Mr. Scott, who is in charge of the program. Also the student must be a junior or senior and must be passing his or her academic classes. Students receive one-half credit for one full year of aiding.

Look at Those Aides

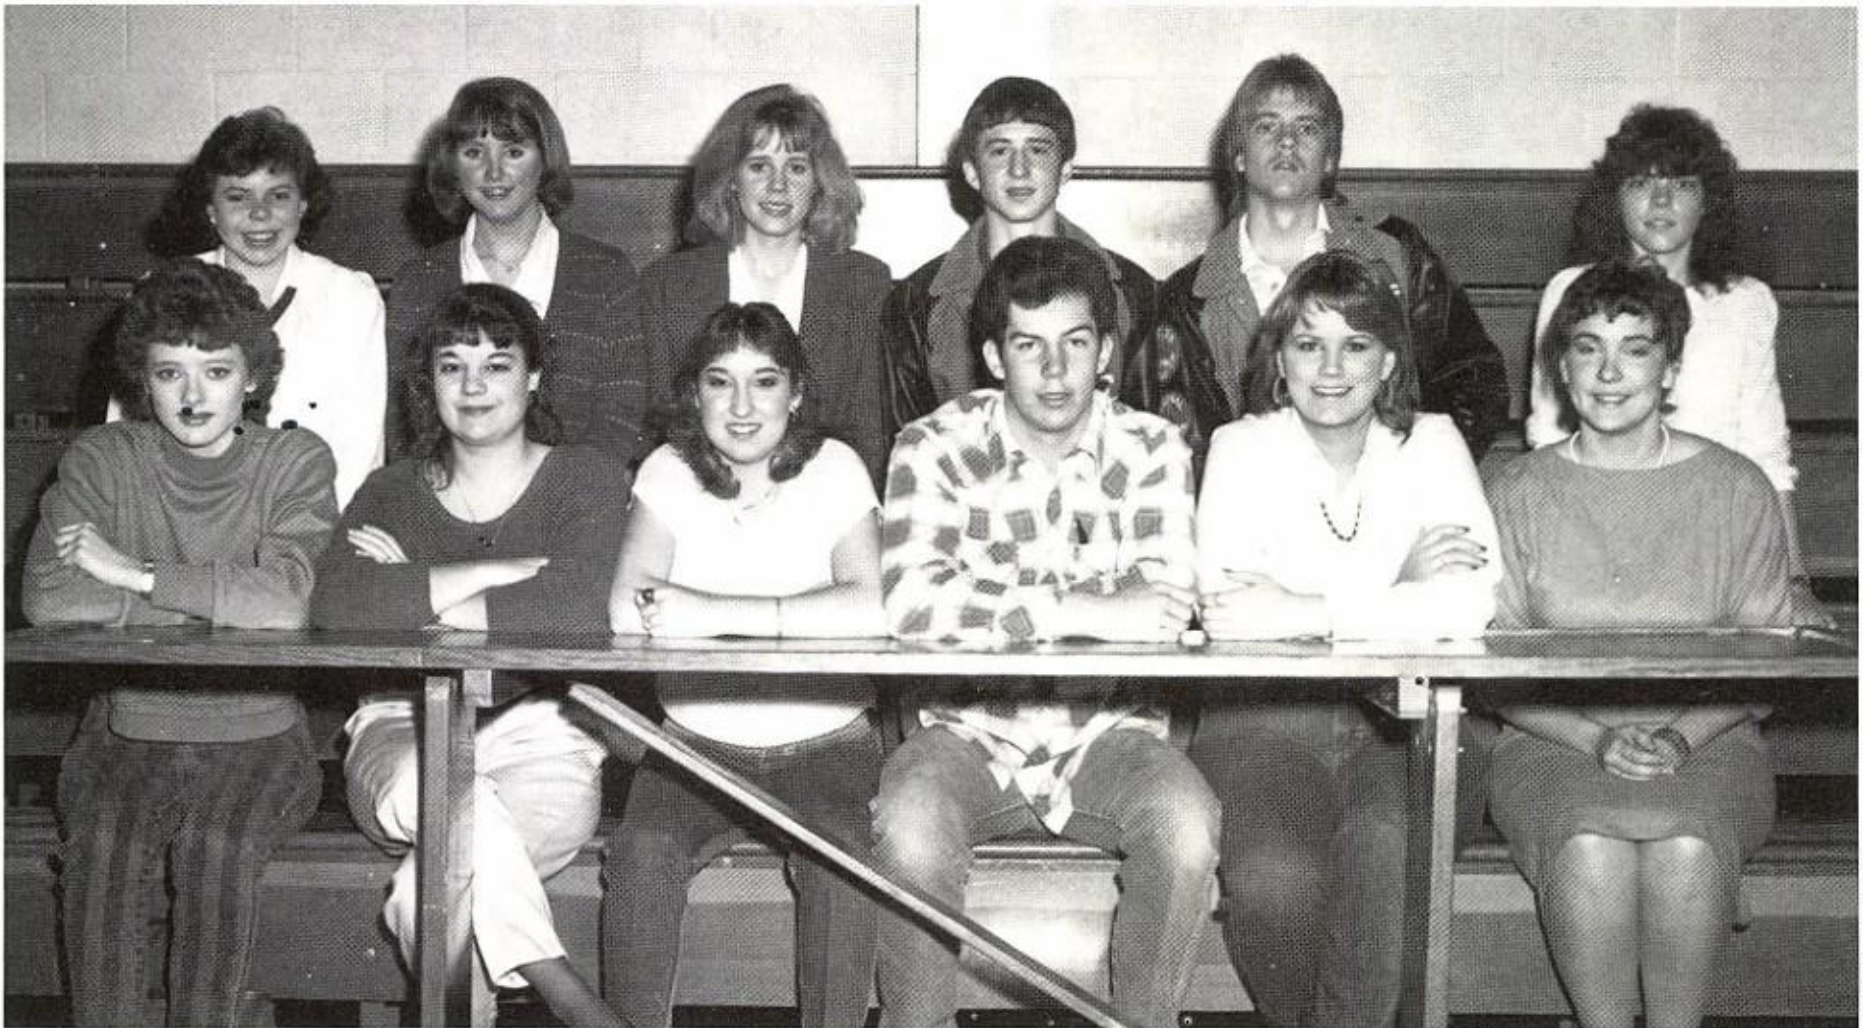

"I just called to say I love you." Stephanie Varuska, Mrs. Howard's aide, calls to order some music to be used in classes.

The yearbook staff interviewed several teachers to find out what qualities they looked for in an aide.

Coach Heckers said that he looked for "someone who accepts responsibility readily and has the ability to instruct the younger kids and doesn't become bossy. Also, someone who is always on time and will readily assist me in any and all duties."

Mrs. Stubblefield said that she looks for someone who is "hardworking, dependable, trustworthy, learns quickly, and follows instructions."

Over Hill, Over Dell — C.C. Races to Victory

The girls' and boys' cross country track team had a good year. Their new coach was Coach Ancona and practices began early in the school year. Plagued by injuries, the girls' team dwindled to just a few girls. However, those able to compete did well. In the district competition, Lundy Palmer finished second, Sharla Rainer was fourth, Chris Palmer was eleventh and Johnye Roa was fourteenth. Lundy and Sharla moved on to regionals where they placed twenty-second and twenty-first respectively. All in all, their team did very well under the circumstances, and they are looking forward to next year.

The boys' team had a good season also. Although the competition was tough throughout the year, they stood up to it. The boys all ran very well with good times. The course they run is three miles, whereas the girls run two miles. The boys team was a new addition to the athletic program this year. Their practice and competition should help them in the years to come.

Perhaps one of the most important points of this year's football team was the "Born To Win" clinic that our football players were involved in. This program added a new outlook on everything our football players were involved in — from the educational to the athletic. Proof of this is shown in the All-District teams. Many positions were held by some of our players. Those on First Team Offense are Tim Soules, Toby Watts, Kevin Hinderman, and Dell Young. Those on First Team Defense are Toby Watts, Curtis Hissam, and Kevin Hinderman. Curtis is also the most valuable Defensive Player on the First Team. Brad Hamilton holds a position on the Second Team Defense. Honorable Mentions are held by Allen Wahlstrom, Johnny Paul, Brandon Hyles, Greg Minter, Mike Elrod, Eddie Bills, Ricky Hood, and Matt Elrod. AND My RANDY!

Overall: 2-5-1

The Freshman football team was coached by two new coaches to Aledo this year, Coach Duncan and Coach Lindsay. The freshmen remained scoreless in their first two games against Castleberry and Crowley. However, by the third game with Carroll the defense began to move. Running back Ricky Box scored the touchdown in the Carroll game on a blocked punt and the Bearcats tied the game. In the Hillsboro game Steve Marshall scored on a 34 yard pass from McGlinchey and Lee Walls ran for the two point conversion; however, the freshmen still lost the game. When the Bearcats played Cedar Hill, it was Perry Coleman's night as he scored on a 17 yard pass from McGlinchey. Again the freshmen were defeated. The next Friday night found the Bearcats facing the Lake Worth Bullfrogs, and they came away with their first victory of the season. Box, Robinson, and Marshall scored the three touchdowns with Marshall kicking the extra point. The freshman team was defeated by Midlothian, but Box managed a touchdown on a 26 yard pass from McGlinchey. The final game of the season against Alvarado brought a big win for the freshman Bearcats. Box scored the first TD on a 1 yard run and with the game tied, Kevin Whitmire scored on a 5 yard run to win the game.

Although the freshmen had a losing record, they gained valuable experience both on and off the field. Season statistics found Ricky Box scoring 4 TDs, Zan McGlinchey threw 4 TD passes — 2 to Steve Marshall, 1 to Box and 1 to Perry Coleman. Kevin Whitmire scored one TD. Jason Robinson and Lee Walls scored 2 point conversions and Steve Marshall kicked an extra point. Although all the scoring was done by just a few, the boys functioned well as a team.

Go! Fight! Win!

The seventh and eighth grade teams were coached by Coach Mathison and Coach Heckers respectively. This was both coaches' first year at Aledo, and they did an exceptional job working with the teams.

The seventh grade team had a losing season; however, they used this as a chance to learn and build a team for next year.

The eighth grade team had a winning season with four wins and three losses. The season got off to an exciting start with a 28 to 22 victory over Crowley and finished with back to back victories over Alvarado and Lake Worth. The eighth grade team improved throughout the season and is looking forward to a successful season next year as big FRESHMEN!

Lady Cats Accept Challenges

The varsity girls team faced a challenging season this year by playing excellent teams with more experience and older players. The team had only five senior players, but they always worked to the best of their ability. Athletics was first period, to the dismay and amazement of all the players. That meant early practices at 7:15 and going to every class after first tired and weak. Yet, throughout grueling workouts, sprints, and some disheartening losses the girls' spirit never died.

Every victory was fought hard and won with pride. The Lady Cats this year had speed, charm and a dazzling ability to win over the crowd in seconds. The final game of the year proved to be the heartbreaker. After being down once by ten, the team fought back to within two points but then lost to Cedar Hill. The seniors had a season to reflect back on, but the juniors and three sophomores had seasons of the future to look forward to. Things in the next coming season look like they will just get better and better for the Lady Cats.

J.V. Girls Being the Best They Can Be

The Junior Varsity girls had a winning season with only two defeats. For the entire first half of the season they were undefeated. The first loss came to Midlothian in a one point upset. Yet, the rest of the season was marked iwth wins some large and some small. The team finished in a tie for first in the district.

They also shared the same workout time with varsity. Scrimmaging and practicing along with varsity helped the players gain confidence and knowledge that will help them later. They hope to have another winning season next year.

The freshman girls' basketball team enjoyed a winning season this year. From effortless wins to hard fought victories, the team never lost its excellent form. Throughout the year, the girls played tough, forcing their opponents to work extra hard. This team promises to bring exciting surprises in the years to come at Aledo.

Varsity Boys Strive for Victory

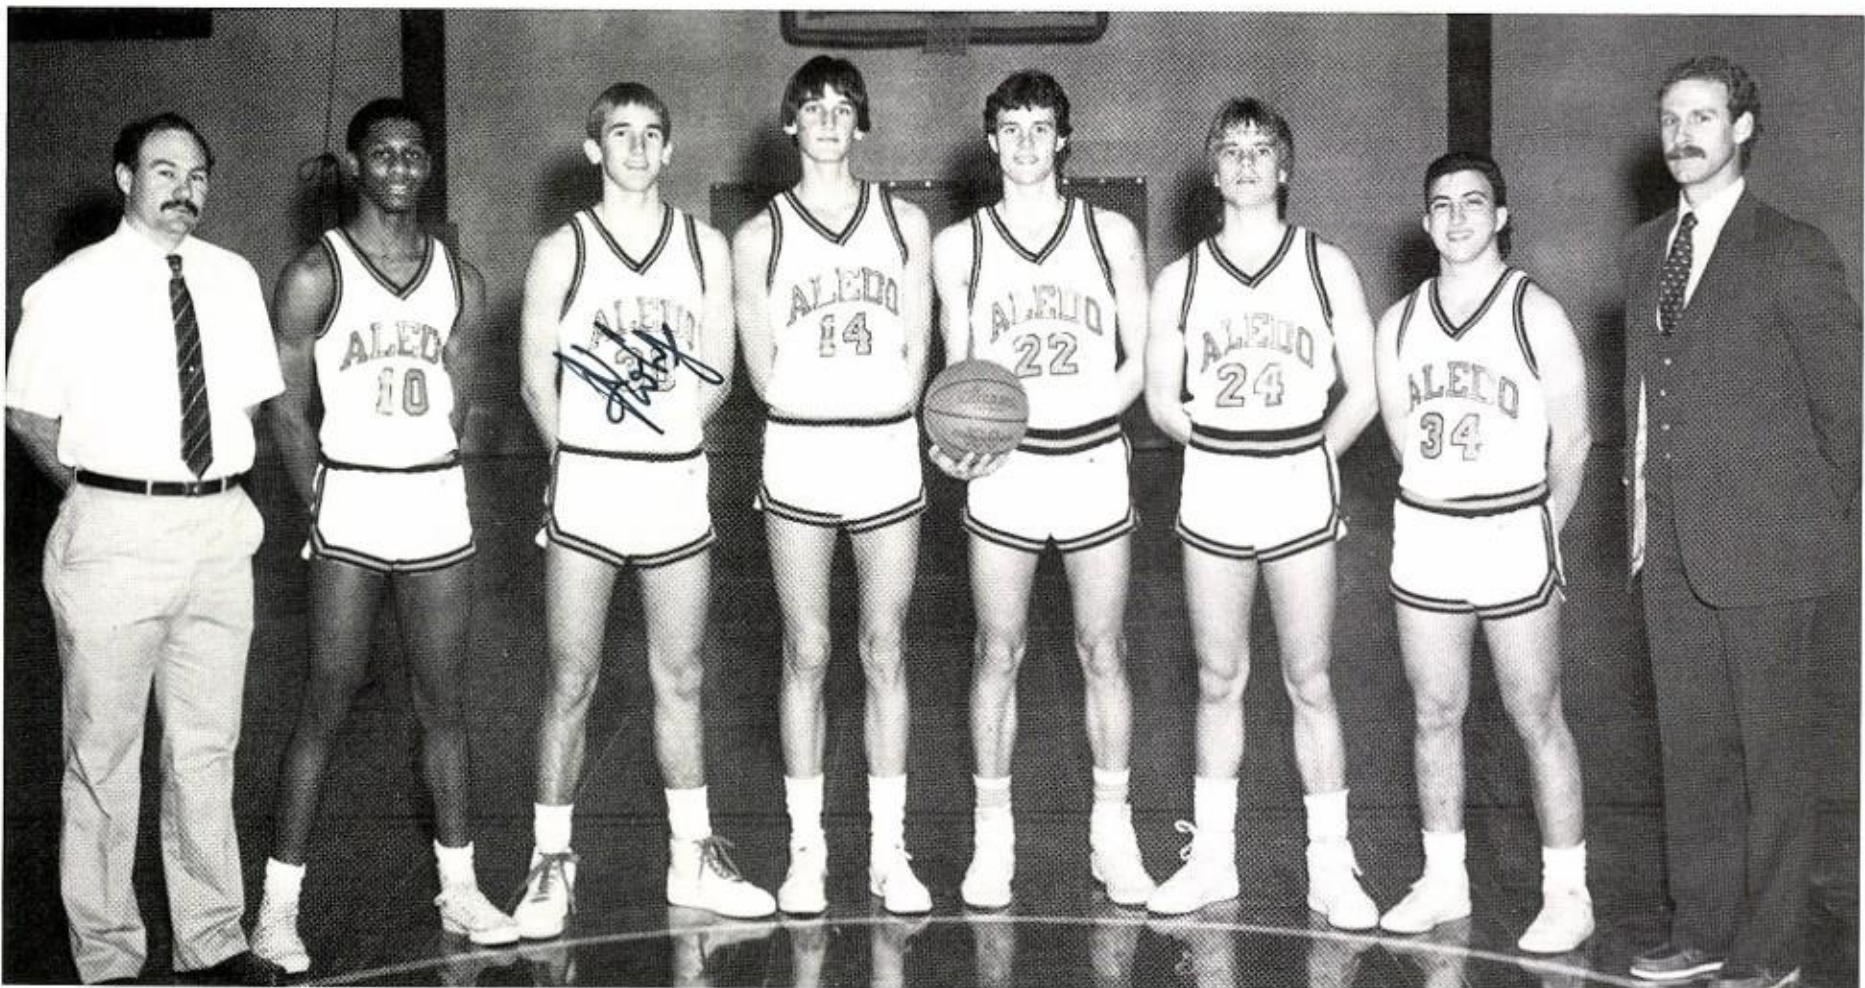

The varsity boys basketball team had an exciting and winning season. Although basketball is a sport usually left in the shadow of Aledo football, the team proved what could be done this year in an all-out effort season: Consisting of only six players, this close band of teammates and friends went through an almost flawless year of play. They just barely missed reaching the playoffs.

Once the team began winning, there was no stopping the fans. Every home game brought a crowded humming gym that literally exploded with the teams every move. A high point in the season came in a home game against Ferris. When the Ferris team tied the game with seconds to go, Kevin Hinderman brought the ball down the floor and shot from well beyond the free throw line. When the shot went in, the fans burst onto the floor screaming, cheering, and raising players on their shoulders like a scene from a movie.

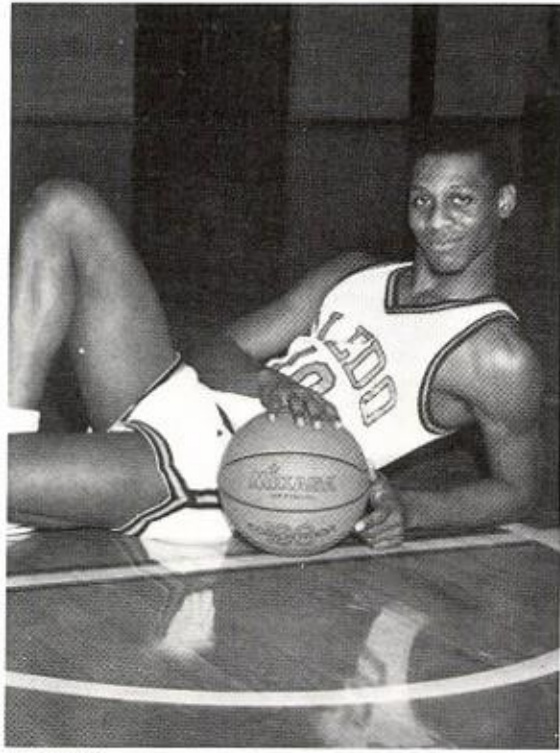

The team rallied to several last minute victories. In a dramatic finish in the last regular season game, the team held onto a tie and then won in overtime against Red Oak. The playoffs hopes soared and fell throughout the season, but the team did not make it. However, the varsity team had one of the best seasons in several years and their exciting season provided all the drama and thrills that basketball could possibly offer.

The Junior varsity boys' team, consisting of juniors and sophomores had an excellent season. Some early losses slowed the team down a little, but they held on to have a strong finish at the end of the season. The J.V. team worked out along with the varsity team the last period of every day as well as after school. They all worked hard and with their excellent ballhandling skills, rebounding, and shooting ability, they ended up with a fine season and a good record.

The freshman boys' team had a good year. Every game won was fought hard, and every victory was a milestone in their tough district. The boys played hard and worked hard throughout the year. Every morning, throughout the cold winter, they brought themselves into the cramped, old rock gym by the elementary. Getting good shots and striving to win helped the boys have a confident season which can only get better as they get older.

REFLECTIONS

Superintendent

This is Mr. James Warlick's first year as superintendent of the Aledo ISD. He has had a wide background of education. The colleges he attended were: NTSU graduating with a BS in science; Southwest State graduating with a Master of Education Certificate and a Principal's Certificate; Tarleton State University graduating with a superintendent's certificate.

Before coming to Aledo, he spent 3 years at Arlington, 1 year at Gatesville, 2 years at Luling, 4 years at Clifton, 1 year at Santo, and 4 years at Midland.

Among some of his special interests are hunting, fishing, watching athletic programs, and collecting ducks.

Mr. Warlick has worked hard so far to maintain high standards for Aledo schools and hopes to continue doing so.

Work or play? Mr. Warlick is caught taking a brief rest from the demanding work of being superintendent.

What a car! Mr. Warlick takes time for a picture before leaving on one of the many trips connected with his job.

High School Administration

Principal

Deane Glenn has been working at Aledo for twenty-nine years. For twenty-five of those years, he has served as the principal of the high school. Before becoming principal, he taught mathematics.

Incorporating a high standard for the students at Aledo has been a goal that Mr. Glenn has accomplished with pride, as well as keeping open lines of communication between faculty and students and maintaining high levels of academic excellence.

Mr. Glenn received his Bachelor's Degree from Texas Wesleyan, and he completed his work for a Master's Degree at Texas Christian University and North Texas State University.

Vice-Principal

James Scott began his teaching career at Aledo in 1976 as a history teacher and coach. In 1983 Mr. Scott became the first vice-principal at Aledo. He says that he enjoys his work very much and that his favorite part is working with the faculty and student body. Mr. Scott completed his BS degree at East Texas State University and his Master's of Education Administration and Mid-level Management at Texas Christian University.

Counselor

This is Linda Hoffer's first year at Aledo. She is the counselor for Grades K-12. She feels that this is a very large undertaking but that it is well-worth her time. Mrs. Hoffer brings a great deal of enthusiasm and a fresh approach to the counseling position. Mrs. Hoffer has a B.A. in French and English from TCU and a M.Ed. in Ed. Psychology from UT at Austin.

CLASS OF 85 SAYS . . .

You finally made it! You were a real life, honest-to-goodness, big, bad senior. College always seemed so far off, but believe it or not, this was it — graduation year. Freshman thoughts of, "I hope my hair stays curled at least until lunch," or "I hope I don't get lost," changed in four short years to "I hope we have a senior skip day soon," and "So what if I'm a slob; I'm a senior!"

Privileges came with seniority. Instead of looming in the distance, senior prom and other "senior only" activities suddenly became reality. Events became sentimental: it was your last Homecoming, your last football game, your last pep rally at Aledo. Thoughts turned to life after high school, and plans and decisions were made. Graduation came and high school came to a close. The class of 1985 made its mark at Aledo, as well as friendships and memories that will last a lifetime.

Most importantly you learned that graduation was not only an end, but a beginning!

Griffin, Jerry — FBLA (3-4)

My Best and Worst Times at AHS Were . . .

"The best was making a lot of friends. The worst was (is) seeing them all leave. Also, the worst was taking Senior English."

Randall Grissom

The best was I got to be on the Aledo Varsity Team — the worst was I got sick the first two weeks of the season."

Keith Riney

"The worst was having to put up with 3 years of mediocre upperclassmen."

David Moore

"Good stuff happened every day!"

Jon Henderson

"The worst was when my car wouldn't start in the high school parking lot for one week straight!"

Cathy Coleman

"The best was when I got honorable mention in basketball."

Missy Dunn

"The best thing that happened to me was encountering the Aledo cooking staff."

Eddie Horton

"The worst thing was my 'flying wreck'."

Tonya Giles

"My best was sitting in Mr. Rooney's refrigerator."

Jamie Deel

"The best was making a lot of new friends, and the worst was studying for tests."

David Vaught

"The best was getting an education and making many friends. The worst was seeing friends leave school and taking English IV."

Randall Grissom

"The best thing was when I was elected head of the decorating committee for the prom."

Kelly Keen

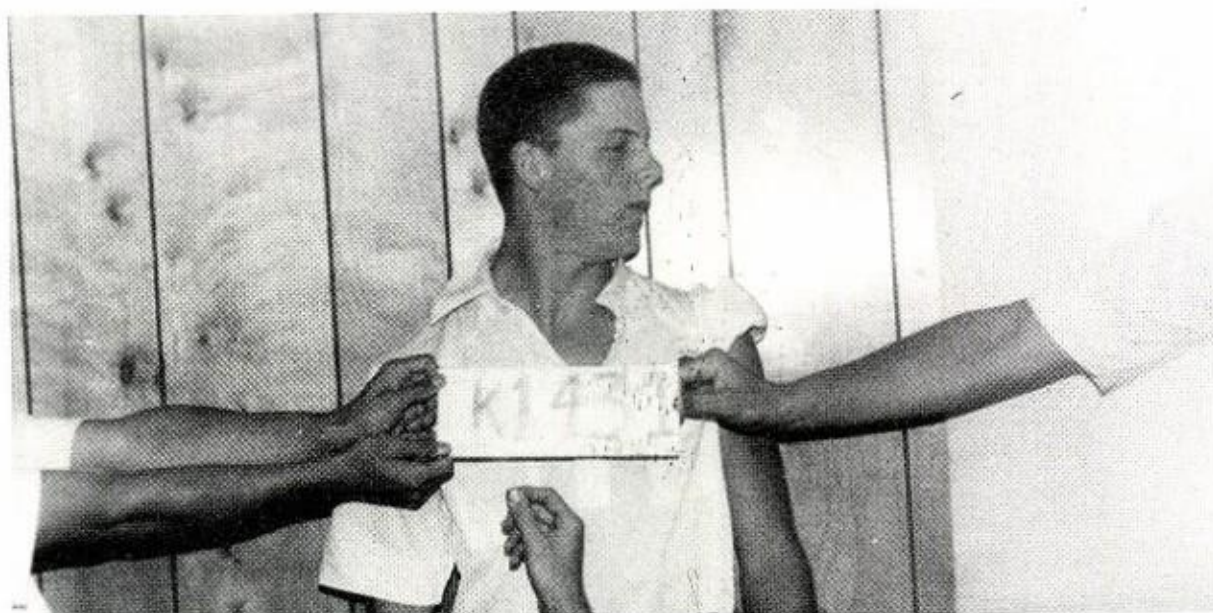

"The best was playing football, the worst was taking Marsha Johnson's chemistry class."

Brandon Hyles

"The best was becoming mascot, the worst was taking chemistry."

Laurie Knoppel

Brilliant personalities stick together. Mary Lane and Chawn Gilliland enjoy Art class.

Most likely to succeed. Mike Elrod sets an example for the underclassmen.

Words of Wisdom From the Seniors of '85

"Do your homework, and you'll be o.k."

Melissa Crabtree

"Stay away from Coach Scott — he drinks Donald Duck orange juice."

Kim McEndree

"Enjoy school while you can because one day it won't be there."

Dale Stockstill

"Enjoy it — it goes by fast."

Holly Norman

"Be cool and don't haze."

Scot Weekly

"If you have a dream — do your best to fulfill that dream and enjoy these years."

Stephanie Reid

"Be a good sport and a true friend."

Missy Williams

"Get it while you can."

Thresa Lohman

"Hang in there — it gets better."

Dodd Meadows

"Don't ever ask, because you can't be told no!!"

Christy Jordan

"Grin and bear it!"

Mike Gartman

"Stay in school, learn all you can."

James Smith

"Good luck — that's all I can say!!"

Dell Young

"Don't smart off to upperclassmen!!"

Jerry Robinson

"Imagination is the key to opening your mind."

Lois Loise Evans

"Avoid taking any Language but English — which is confusing enough!"

David Moore

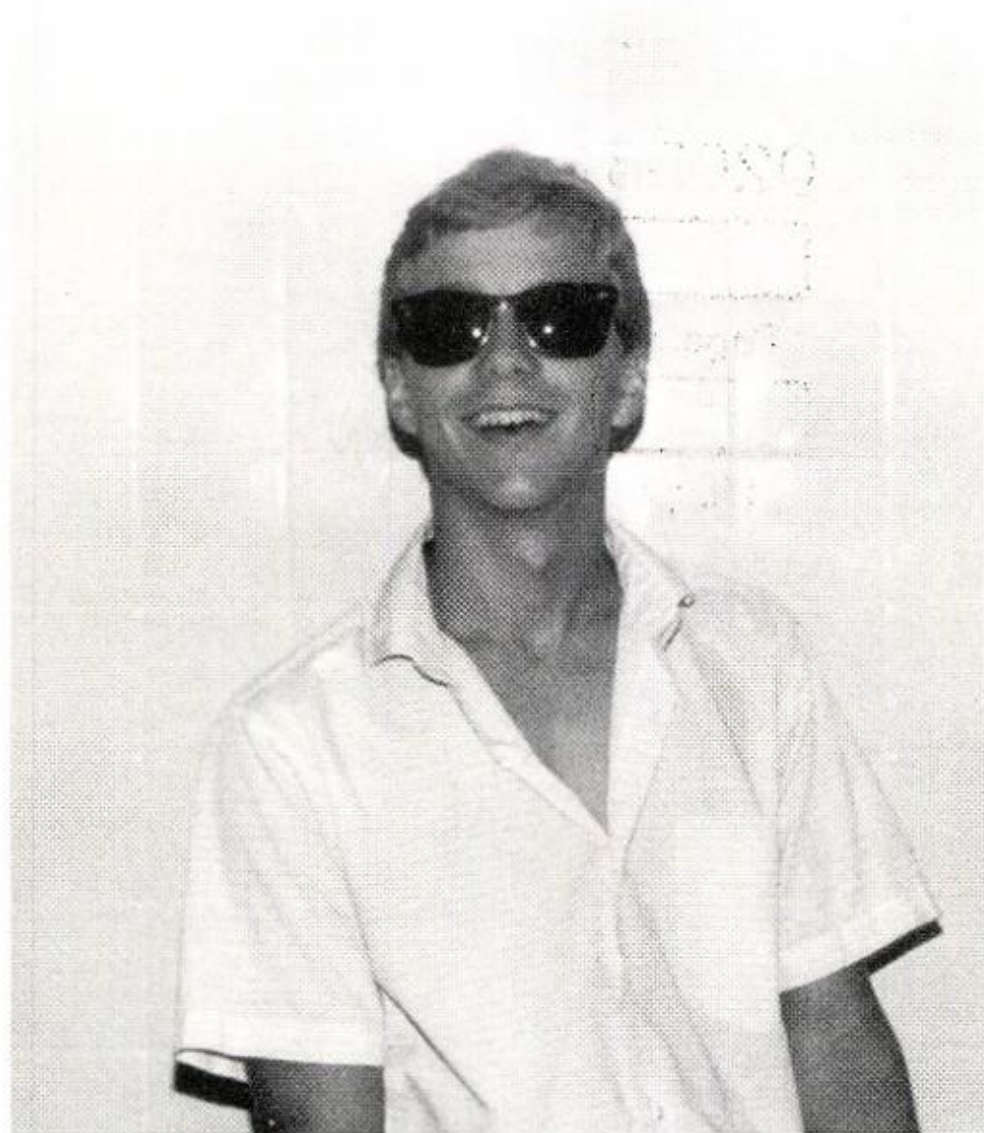

"Always eat candy you can swallow fast. And keep an innocent look on your face."

Marylane Norris

"Find a dream. Follow it. And don't let anything or anyone hold you back — EVER!!"

Eddie Bills

Deric Weiss has been an outstanding member of the Senior Class who participates in numerous activities in and outside of school. Last summer he toured Romania, Austria, and Hungary with the Youth Orchestra. He is drum major and president of the A.H.S. Band, and is an avid member of the Literary Club.

Hopes and Dreams

"The day will be here before we know it." This is a quote that you often hear from seniors. The seniors of '85 have added the following: "Our Hopes and Dreams will soon be celebrated on what lies ahead of us."

Best In The Mix, Class Of '86

"Finally upperclassmen, not yet over the hill. Sometimes silly, sometimes serious, holding on and not quite letting go." These are the words used to describe the Seniors of '86. The junior class worked very hard in 1984 and 1985 to earn the respect of the underclassmen. They ran the concession stand during the first 5 home games and made money for the Junior-Senior prom.

After waiting 10 years for class rings, the few short weeks until they were delivered seemed to go by quickly and when the rings arrived there was a feeling of newness and accomplishment among the class.

Class Of '87

The sophomore year at Aledo High School began fresh and exciting. There were no more freshman jokes or timid questions to ask upper classmen. There were more freedoms and opportunities for everyone. Although classes were harder and scholastic achievement was important for the future, students found time for fun. Time outside school was occupied in various activities from dating to driving and more. Times with friends and fun provided a social life never to be outdone. The sophomore year was not just the second year of high school — it was a collage of people, places, and fun times for the class of '87.

All Work And No Play — Never For Sophs!

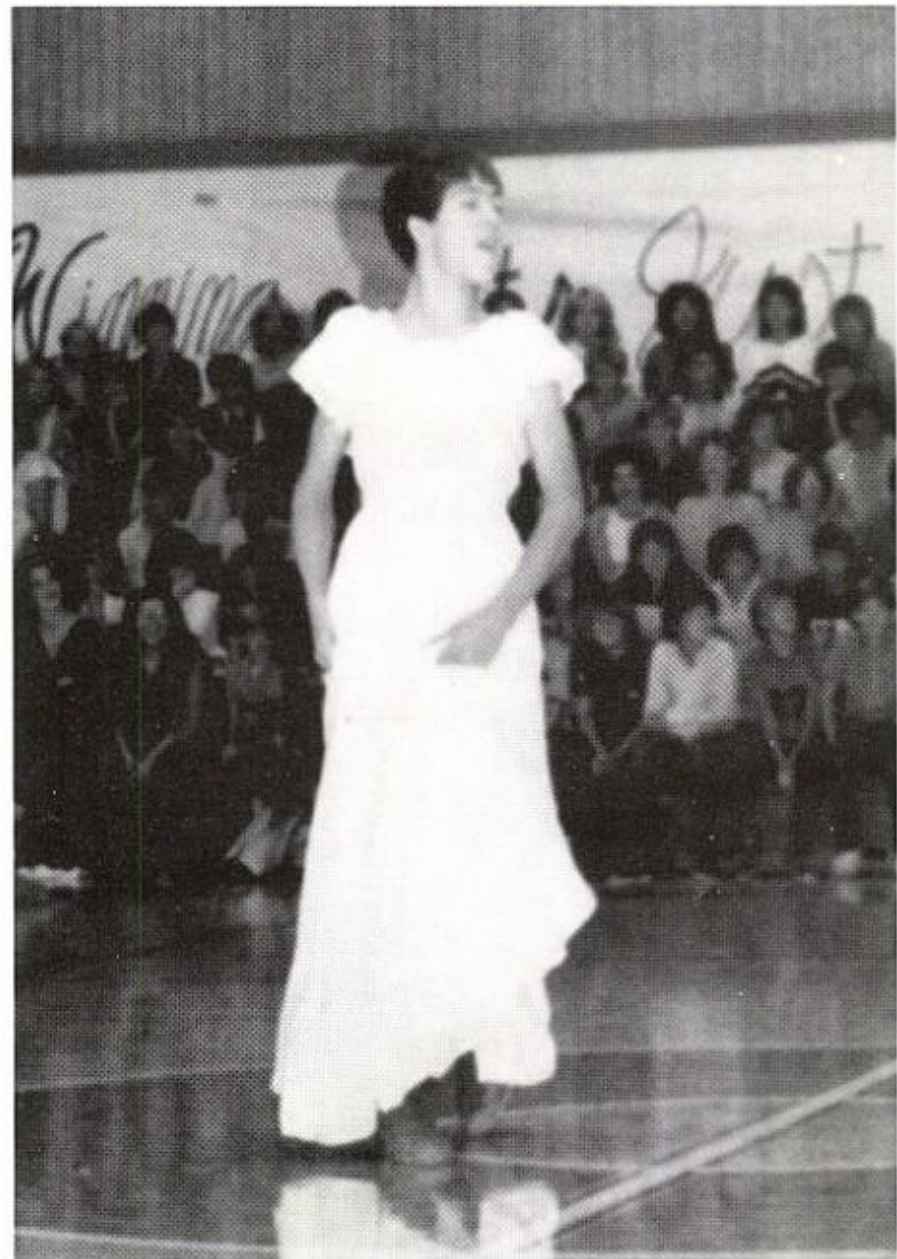

Freshmen Tackle Campus Life

Only last year, High School was a dream in the minds of the Seniors of 1988. This year it became a reality amid the confusion of bigger lockers, more friends, and harder classes. Welcoming the challenge with excitement, the Freshman class began enjoying all of the benefits that come from hard work in high school. Pep rallies, FBLA, FFA, Homemaking, FHA, and Vo-Ag were among the new activities that the Freshmen experienced. Suddenly, graduation didn't seem so far away, and the Class of '88 felt the pride of being a student at Aledo High School.

Freshman Class Officers: Sec.-Treas. Heather Riney; Pres. Joey Paul; Vice-Pres. Amy Murphy.

FRESHMEN OUT ON THE TOWN: Dana Walloston, Angie Gibson and Jennifer Burkette attend the FHA Formal Initiation.

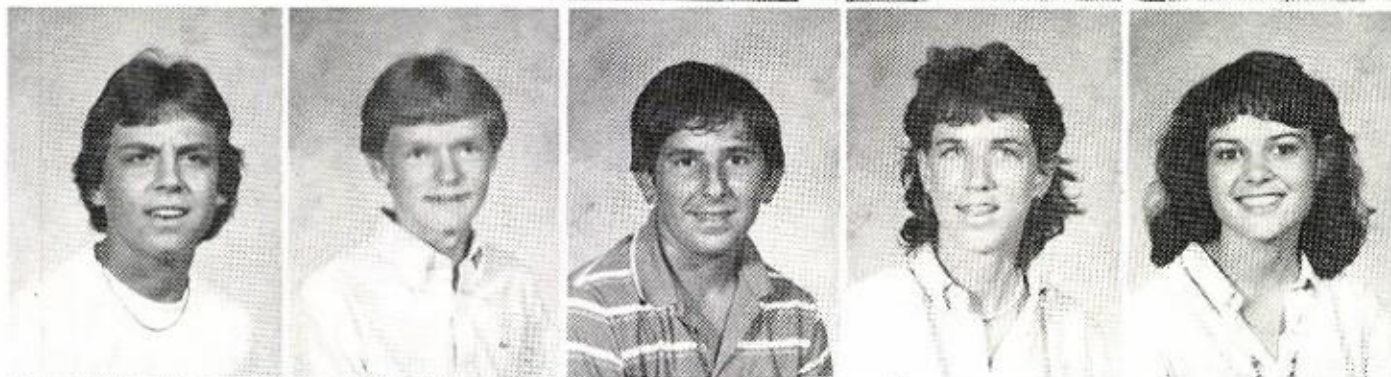

HOMECOMING QUEEN NOMINEE? Jarrod Dixon participates as freshman homecoming queen nominee in homecoming skit.

They decided to try something new this year — sixth graders exercise in the new co-ed PE class.

Elementary Faculty

Willard Stuard has been involved in the Aledo School District for 23 years. His first three years were spent teaching seventh and eighth grade science, and he has been the elementary school principal for the past twenty years. Mr. Stuard grew up in Aledo and attended the Aledo schools. He earned his bachelor's degree from Texas A&M and his master's degree from North Texas State University. Although he is very busy throughout the year, he finds time for relaxation in gardening and ranching. He enjoys working with children and in the field of education. His understanding and compassion have enabled him to be a good principal and keep up the Aledo standard of excellence in the elementary school. Mr. Stuard is a special asset to the Aledo school system.

A sick Cabbage Patch Kid? Two elementary students dressed as a doctor and a nurse carry a Cabbage Patch Kid on a stretcher during the Halloween Carnival. The Halloween Carnival was a big event for the elementary students in addition to being a big fund raiser for the Lions Club and the PTO.

Food or Fame? Elementary students prefer to pose for the photographer instead of concentrating on lunch.

Future Artist! Mrs. Gibson's class works diligently on an art project.

Jamie Deef

After seven short months and four deadlines we finally finished another volume of the 'Ledoian. The staff worked extra hard to capture all the memories of the '84-85 school year, but we could not have done it without all the help from our sponsors Mrs. Rowe and Mrs. Gifford. Without them this yearbook would not be complete.

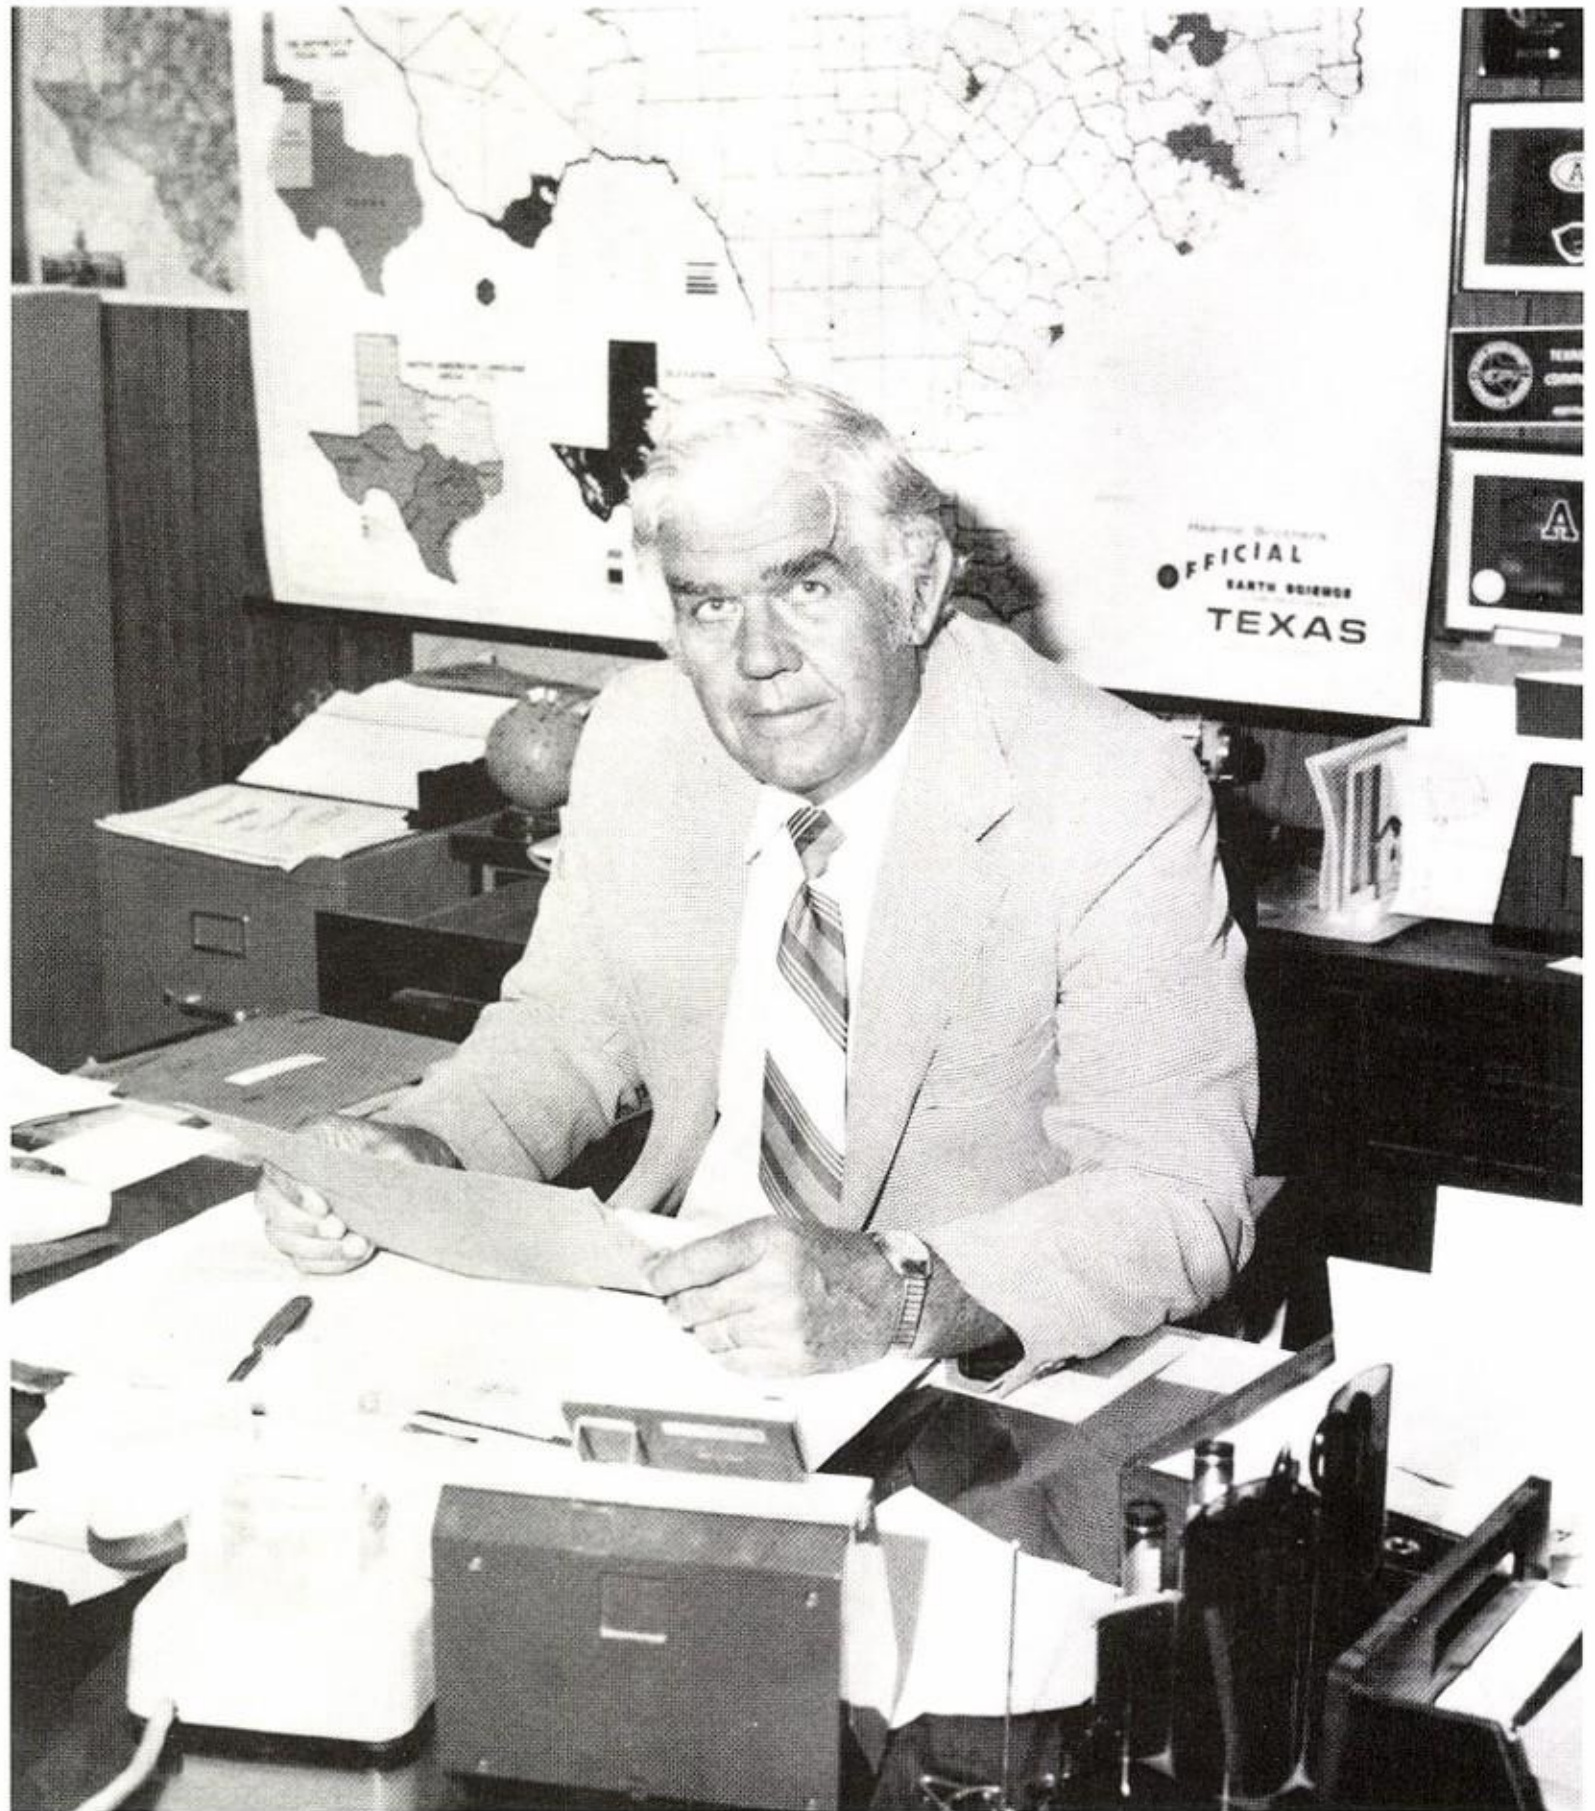

This yearbook is for all the faculty and students of Aledo; but most of all to the Senior class of '85. We may not have captured all the memories due to new state laws, but we hope a smile will come to your face as you flip through these pages ten years from now. We hope you will remember the good times, the sad times, but most of all the fun times.

The past three years on the Annual Staff has been a lot of fun and a lot of hard work. To all the Annual Staffers in the past three years, remember: trips to the store; talk of ordering out for pizza; Christmas parties at TGI Friday's; yearbook seminars; getting out of class to help with pictures; learning the real skill of cropping and numbering pictures; carnation sales; copy writing; doing and redoing quad-paks; getting to know Walter; and last, but not least, Closing 171 remember your beloved editor.

DEDICATION

In appreciation for the many years of hardwork, time, devotion, and love that was given to the Aledo schools, the yearbook staff dedicates the 1984-85 'Ledoian to Mr. Charles McAnally, who retired as Superintendent in June, 1984.

To The Cutest Girl at Aledo High:

Hi .

Cas!

Viola!

Love ya,

Terry

Sharon,

well, I'm so glad that you and I have become such better friends from last year. We have had some good times in Algebra II last year and Calculus This year! I hope that you and Randy have the best years of your lives together and I'm sure you will. Have a good summer and keep in touch!!

Sharon,

I have really enjoyed getting to know you these past few years. I think you're a great person and I enjoy talking to you at lunch and English. I hope you have a great time at college. Hold on to Randy he is a great guy. Take care.

Love ya.

RESERVED FOR MY One and Only LOVE

Well, this space must be reserved for me. Where do I start? It's all gone by so fast. I can still remember the first time we went out, I wore my white shirt with black trim. I think you were more nervous than I was. I knew you were someone special from that first date. I had never talked to anyone like I talked to you on that night. Things only got better from there. Who would have thought that first date would have led to all this.

These last two years of high school have been two of the best years of my life. I'm so glad you've been there to make these years so good. There have been so many good times. There have also been a few bad times, but the good times outweigh the bad ones.

I have learned so much since we've been together. I've learned how to love and be loved. I've also learned how to open up a little more. I may not be perfect at doing it, but I've gotten better. I had never done that before.

Sometimes I don't know how you put up with me. I know that I do little things that bother you, and most of the time I don't mean to annoy you. I'm just glad you've put up with them.

→ You've taught me many things. I've learned a lot about growing up since we've been together. I don't know what I'd do without you. You've been everything anyone could want.

I know that the future will bring more new and exciting things for us. College will offer a variety of new experiences.

I may not tell you or express it to you enough, but I love you. I've never been real outspoken, and for some reason I just don't say anything. Sometimes I wish I wasn't like this.

I guess I've gotten to where I just about feel like family. Everyone in your family has been super-towards me. I hope you have felt comfortable around my family. They like you a lot more than you think.

You're a special part of my life, a part I love living with. I don't know what I'd do without you.

I love you very much. I don't express it as much as I should, but I love you. Our love is something special and I cherish it. You'll always be my Tweeny.

I Love you, Landy
